

Who We Are:

A non-denominational Christian network of artists who honor Christ together through art and community service

Our Purpose:

To inspire our world to seek God and a personal relationship with Him through Christ

Our Art:

Displays beauty, integrity, and excellence through all kinds of media and subject matter

We Minister by:

- Sharing the good news of Christ as Savior in all that we do
- Serving our churches and communities
- Supporting one another as persons and artists
- Providing opportunities to exhibit
- Sponsoring imaginative fellowship events and seminars

What We've Done:

- Produced a series of DVDs to inspire artists
- Sponsored unique conferences/workshops
- Sponsored annual Psalms and Creative Arts Celebrations uniting art, music, and dance at the Hopkins Center for the Arts
- Created Valentine's Day gift bags for homeless children
- Shared art from our Psalms Exhibit winners and participants with local churches
- Combined art and videography for the Psalms by the Lake Art & Film Festival
- Produced the webinar, "Get Ready to Market Your Art," with Carolyn Edlund and Wayne Moran
- Created a three-month exhibit called "Heroes and Heritage" for the Central Minneapolis Public Library in its Cargill Exhibit Hall
- Co-sponsored a parade group for the MayDay Festival in Minneapolis
- Distributed 200 Bibles, 1,600 postcards, and 1,400 Tea Packets with a Scripture notation at the MayDay Festival
- Collaborated with the Minnesota Christian Writers Guild to create flyers for a local jail ministry
- Ministered to nursing home residents, providing materials and ideas to help them express their hearts through art

What Can You Do?
