

About Us:

We started with eight artists. For 18 months, we prayed, planned, and sought God for His vision and purposes. It was an amazing spiritual adventure that we still treasure. Excited and grateful, in March, 2012, we launched Great Commission Artists. with our first conference, "Worship in the Potter's Hands" followed by "Waterfalls with Rev. Paul Oman" in July.

Since then, we've sponsored:

- 12 exhibits
- 5 more conferences
- a local cable program
- a DVD series on worship & art
- numerous fellowship opportunities
- community art-based outreach to homeless children, nursing home residents, a prison ministry, the Minneapolis May Day Festival, and oncology patients.
- a rich & inspiring art blog.

We thank God and give Him all the glory, because His grace provided the vision, path, resources, and strategies.

Who We Are:

A non-denominational Christian network of artists who honor Christ together through art and community service

Our Purpose:

To inspire our world to seek God and develop a personal relationship with Him through Christ

Our Art:

To display beauty, integrity, and excellence through various media and subject matter

Our Ministry:

Sharing the good news of Christ in all we do

Serving our churches and communities

Providing annual traveling exhibits to local galleries and churches

Creating an active, inspiring, and ongoing art-based blog on our website

Sponsoring imaginative fellowship events and seminars

Supporting one another as persons and artists

The Great Commission

Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Matthew 28:18-20 NIV
